

Carol Storey & Torch Songs

Carol Storey and the Torch Songs band cook up an intoxicating soul-brew blending contemporary jazz with te reo and the flavours of world music.

Carol Storey - vocals/guitar
Liam Ryan - keyboards Grant
Mason - trumpet Trevor
Braunias - guitar
Wayne Melville - bass
Neil Reynolds - drums

Torch Songs began in 1997 as a duo playing a smouldering repertoire in the torch songs tradition. The current six piece line-up has many jazz and arts festival headline appearances and three albums to its credit. In 2002 Ryan and Storey won a joint Tui Award and in 2008 Storey was a finalist in the APRA Silver Scroll Maioha Awards and went on to win Best Traditional Maori Music Award at the inaugural Waiata Maori Music Awards for her te reo album Mokomoko. Storey's distinctive and emotive voice sees her singing jazz in English, Te Reo, Spanish and Portugese adding an exotic lustre to the sound of the band. The Torch Songs band creates a night of spellbinding moments - straight-ahead jazz coupled with the flavours of world music and roof raising flights of musicianship.
