Virtuoso violinist/composer Fiona Pears returns to Nelson after a whirlwind year that saw Fiona touring and performing at festivals and concert halls in the UK, Bermuda as well as Japan and the US.

Fiona, along with her amazing band, will captivate you with her passionate and exuberant violin playing. She has become an international artist and composer and has matured into an effervescent and charismatic performer. Apart from her playing, she has continued to earn respect as a talented composer. Her songs are often based on her life's experiences of travelling and meeting people as well as her love of many different musical styles. She has released three CDs and two DVD's.

Fiona's band is a cleverly chosen group of exceptional musicians, including hubby and musical director Ian, who have both the ability and the confidence to perform her compositions incorporating various music styles including celtic, classical, gypsy and tango with a taste of jazz thrown in.
