As winner of 2008 Australia's got Talent, Joe Robinson became a household name in Australia and is quickly gaining an international reputation through performances and associations with legends such as Les Paul, Tommy Emmanuel, Steve Vai and Brad Paisley.

Joe started playing guitar at 10 years of age, following 4 years of classical piano lessons. He soon surpassed his tutors and has largely developed his skills through discipline, long practice sessions and a love of music of all styles. Joe's charismatic personality is home-grown, young and fresh. He has an exciting vision and enthusiasm for the future of his music. But best of all, he just has that "je ne sais quoi," that something special! Trying to pigeonhole Joe's style of music is difficult. It's a melting pot of anything and everything.

"My friend Joe Robinson is already an incredible player for his age and a great person to carry a torch of good music to all who'll listen. GO JOE!!!" - Tommy Emmanuel
