

Otis

Smooth and soulful. Engaging and intimate. Otis serve up their own twist on Jazz and Standards that'll have you coming back for more.

Gillian Moorman - vocals
James Illingworth - keyboard
Seamus Jolly - double bass
Reuben Bradley - drums

Otis is a collaboration of Wellington-based internationally recognised artists. Australian-born Gillian has performed around the world; most notably as a back-up singer for the original INXS and also opened for Garry Jules on a US Tour.

James, Seamus and Reuben regularly feature on the bill at Jazz festivals throughout the country and have played with some of the world's best Jazz musicians including Mike Nock, Tom Warrington and Brenda Earle. Otis members also feature on countless New Zealand albums including the Little Bushman's Pendulum (Gillian) and the 2007 Jazz Album of the Year, Busy Silence (Reuben).
